Obituary for Patricia Anne Truelove Ljungh

TRUELOVE LJUNGH, Patricia Anne

Passed away at Kingston General Hospital on Thursday March 4, 2021 at the age of 85 years after a brief battle with cancer. She is survived by her longtime partner and best friend, Patti Graham. Also survived by sister-in-law Diana and nieces Jane Truelove and her children Katsua, Cynthia and Keenai and Julia Truelove partner John and Josef, and her Aunt Shirley Hanton (nee Truelove). Predeceased by her husband Esse W. Ljungh and her parents Fred and Eileen Truelove (nee Jackson) and her brother John Truelove. Born and raised in Cobden, Ontario she left for Ottawa to work and then on to London, England where she backpacked throughout Europe for two years. She returned to Canada and later moved to Calgary where she married and travelled from Victoria to Newfoundland. After a time in Ottawa (bringing much fun to her young nieces nearby), she moved to Kingston where she volunteered At the former Ongwanada Institute where she established their library and earned Volunteer of the Year award. She also became involved in dog training with her beloved shelties. She taught and participated in obedience training and was Obedience Chair in the area shows. She was also involved in Flyball, Rally and Agility. She bred shelties for many years and produced many champions in show and performance events. She will be missed at dog shows where she was always ready to help and also for her great sense of humour. A very big thank you to the doctors, nursing staff and the palliative care team on KIDD 5 for their care during her stay. It meant a great deal to her family.

A Remembrance of her Life is planned for the end of August at Woodlands Campground Long Sault, where she and Patti spent happy times watching the dog show and socializing with many friends and acquaintances. Memorial donations in Pat's memory to Southern Ontario Sheltie Rescue Society C/O 2181 Pear Tree Lane, Burlington, Ontario L7P 4L2 would be appreciated by the family.
