In Loving Memory of Hugh Gilmour McGinn

It is with sadness that we announce the passing of Hugh Gilmour McGinn. Hugh died peacefully at his home on Thursday, January 13, 2022. He was just 97 years old. He was predeceased by his beloved wife Vivienne and his son Hugh. He is survived by his son and daughter-in-law, Gordon and Karen, and his daughter, Kathy. Hugh will be lovingly remembered by a multitude of family and friends who meant the world to him; if only we could name them all here.

Hugh was born in Cobden, Ontario on August 29, 1924, the sixth of seven children. While he grew up as a small town boy, he went on to live a life of travel and adventure. He served in the Royal Canadian Air Force as a sergeant in World War II. Hugh then travelled throughout Canada and the United States during his 43-year career with The Bank of Nova Scotia, with his family by his side. The final Bank transfer was to Toronto in 1972 when he was finally able to purchase the only home he owned outright, the bungalow with the green driveway. The house held many many happy memories for him, and that's where he was able to stay.

Hugh loved nothing more than to be surrounded by family and friends, laughing, telling stories, playing cards, and sharing a scotch or two. Times being what they are, there will be no formal service at this time. Our hope is that his family and friends will be able to meet in smaller groups to carry on the storytelling tradition and to raise a glass to Hugh.
