

John Harvey Chatterton Widely Mourned

Impressive tribute to the memory of John Harvey Chatterton, former well-known florist of Ottawa and father of Acting District Chief Harvey Chatterton of the Fire Department, was paid on Wednesday afternoon at his funeral from Mackenzie Brothers' Funeral Home, 233 Argyle avenue. Service was conducted by Rev. C. A. Bender and interment was at Beechwood cemetery.

Mayor Lewis represented the city, while officers of the Fire Department present were: Acting Chief O'Kelly, District Chief Langdon, Inspectors Cooksey and Thivierge, Captains George Harris, W. Armstrong, W. A. Duffey, Lieutenants F. A. Hemphill, W. Graham and P. Sarazin; retired Captain William Albert. Forty-five men of the department also were present and six of them acted as pallbearers.

Chief mourners besides Acting District Chief Chatterton, were four grandchildren, Jean, Harvey, Betty and Wesley Chatterton.

Floral tributes were received from No. 3 Fire Station, No. 7 Fire Station, Scrim's Florist, I.O.D.E. Silver Jubilee and Boys of Craig's Corner, along with many from personal friends.
