

SACRED TO THE MEMORY OF —

James Robert Bennett

WHAT is this thing that men call death?
My friend before me lies; in all save breath
He seems the same as yesterday. His face
So like to life, so calm, bears not a trace
Of that great change which some of us so dread.

I gaze on him and say: He is not dead,
But sleeps; and soon he will arise and take Me by the hand. I know he will awake
And smile on me as he did yesterday;
And he will have some gentle word to say,
Some kindly deed to do; for loving thought
Was warp and woof of which his life was wrought.

He is not dead. Such souls for ever live
In boundless measure of the love they give.

—Jerome B. Bell.
