Ellsworth, like his father, carried on in the family tradition and took over the family farm operation^{4,155}. He was the main contributor to the development of the Mountain View Holstein herd. From 1940, until the herd's disbursement in 1962, the herd operated under the farm name of Ellsworth Francis and Son. The highest show award was for breeding the 1945 All-Canadian and All-American Senior Calf, Mountain View Coralie Rag Apple. In 1965 Ellsworth was awarded a Leadership Award from the Canadian Council on 4-H Clubs in recognition of 15 years service as a 4-H Club Leader. In 1966 the Renfrew Agricultural Society awarded him an Agricultural Service Diploma for Meritorious Service To Agriculture. For many years he was a director of the Renfrew County Holstein Club and the Renfrew Agricultural Society.

Also in the family tradition, Ellsworth served in his church, Northcote United Church, in the capacity of Steward.

Ellsworth died¹⁶⁰ July 14, 1974 in the Rehabilitation Center, Renfrew, Renfrew Co., Ontario at the age of 74.

Ena died¹⁶¹ several months earlier, April 22, 1974 at Renfrew, at the age of 72. They are both buried in Rosebank Cemetery⁵⁴.

Luella Francis (Allen H. Francis, Elisha Francis)^{3,4,162} was born February 12, 1903 in Northcote, Renfrew Co., Ontario. She married^{3,4} Thomas Emerson Briscoe June 30, 1925 at her parents' home in Northcote, Renfrew Co., Ontario. He was the son of John Briscoe and Janet Plaunt and was born March 21, 1898. Rev. Alfred Bishop performed the ceremony. Irene Dagg and Harry Elliott were witnesses¹⁶³.

Luella came out of Ottawa Normal school in 1923 to teach at SS No. 6 Horton for $1,000.00 per year. She taught in one-room schools, including SS No. 9 Admaston for 20 years, until it closed in 1963. There were 9 students the first year and 45 the last year¹⁶⁴.

Luella and Emerson's first farm was located in the South Bonnechere Range of Admaston Twp. This farm is presently owned and farmed by Emerson's nephew John Briscoe and his wife Rae-Anne Briscoe. Rae-Anne is the Reeve of Admaston Twp. The farm is scenically located on the bank of the Bonnechere River. Emerson registered 'Bonnechere' as a prefix to use in naming livestock for identification. He founded Bonnechere Fur Farm. It was one of the farms producing silver fox pelts in Renfrew County. This enterprise was phased out when Emerson and family moved to the present homestead. In 1925, Emerson established the production of Registered Holstein cattle using the prefix 'Bonnechere'. The name continues under the ownership of son Tom and grandson Lorne.

Emerson died October 18, 1978¹⁶⁵ at the age of 80. Luella died August 10, 1981¹⁶⁶ at the age of 78. They are buried at Rosebank Cemetery.

Children of Luella Francis and Emerson Briscoe are:

- + 2 i. Janette Francis Briscoe, born August 07, 1926 in Admaston Twp., Renfrew Co., Ontario.
- + 3 ii. Thomas Emerson Briscoe, born September 29, 1932.
- + 4 iii. Mary Margaret Briscoe, born March 07, 1935; died February 22, 1983.
