John MARSHALL, son of James MARSHALL, was born on 16 Oct 1783 in Connecticut, U.S.A.,¹ died on 28 Jun 1865 in Fitzroy Twp, Carleton, Ontario, Canada, and was buried in York, York, Nebraska, U.S.A. (Greenwood Cemetery, York, Nebraska). John married Sarah BRESEE¹ on 14 Oct 1824.¹ Sarah was born on 18 Jun 1801 in Vermont, USA, died in 1883 in Nebraska, U.S.A., and was buried in York, York, Nebraska, U.S.A. (Greenwood Cemetery, York, Nebraska).

John & Sarah did not live in Ross Township but a number of their children moved from Carleton County to Ross Township which was a familiar settlement pattern for pioneers. Families were large and there was not enough land for the children so they had to move elsewhere. Of their 14 children, we know that Eveline, John W., George, James B., lived in Ross Twp., as some of their children were born here. However, you can see by their place of death that only George remained here. Most of the family moved to Nebraska and descendants spread far and wide across the western U.S. with a few moving on to Regina, Saskatchewan. Some interesting information has been gleaned from obituaries of descendants. The song 'I've been everywhere' comes to mind as you read through the death locations of descendants.

Additional information

The following information accompanied an obituary for S. Eileen Grace Maybee, which appears elsewhere in this edition of The Sun.

Dear Editor:

She (Grace Maybee) was the youngest granddaughter of the late John Marshall and Anne Dobson of Cobden. Their youngest daughter, Susanna Marshall, was married April 12, 1900, Rev. Montague Gower Pool to Ephraim Wesley Maybee in St. Paul's Church in Cobden.

Our mother was an active secretary of St. Paul's Guild, both before and after marriage. She was a skilled telegraph operator. Her father, John Marshall, was a well-known Cobden merchant and reeve of Ross Township for many years in the early 1900's.

He and many other well-known pioneers, including the Goulds and Delahayes, will still be remembered by a now-dwindling number of present-day survivors.

Three of us four children were born in Cobden. Our younger brother, Fred, was born in Bryson, Quebec.

It was three years later, in 1910, that my father's flour mill burned down, and our family then moved to Portage du Fort. That is where Grace first went to school.

Yours for continued progress of The Cobden Sun,
Edward Maybee.

OBITUARY

WM. THOS. MARSHALL

There passed away at Alma, Col., on Sept. 1st, one of the last remaining of the Cobden "old boys" who attended the old red school house, S.S. No. 1, Ross, across the lake, in the person of William Thomas Marshall in his 70th year. The land on which this school was built was donated by his father for school purposes, only, off the corner of his farm, now owned by Mr. Duncan McEwen. Among his old school mates were the MacFarlanes, Youngs, (cousins) Crawford, Fitzpatrick, Roaches, Rosses and Tuffy's.

They crossed the lake in summer on a "boom" made of two logs joined, and passed over the head of the lake on east side of mill creek which is entirely submerged by water now but in those days a sandy beach extended from shore to shore.

Those were the days before the Cobden school was built. On stormy days in winter Mr. Marshall Sr. sent his man and team and took as many as the sleigh would hold around the road by the "plank bridge" over Tuffy's hill. And so the pleasant days passed.

Will entered his father's store leaving school young, and assisted in the store and Post Office with his father. He went to Ottawa every week end to dispose of butter, eggs, beef and fowl on the Ottawa market at 15 years of age. He had as his companion always his dog "Rover", a brown water spaniel, whose feats were his delight. On one occasion he retrieved a valuable compass lost by surveyors in the Muskrat Lake, by diving for it. He lost this dog on one of his trips to Ottawa and was inconsolable.

"Will" Marshall was beloved by all for his sunny disposition and kind ways. He left for Kansas about 1884 and remained there ever since. Later years he was engaged in mining around Cripple Creek. About two years ago he became paralysed in his limbs and has since been a partial cripple. He was unmarried and is survived by one sister, Mrs. E. W. Maybee of Douglas. Burial took place in Prospect Cemetery, Denver.
